

ELITE RECOMMENDS

101 TOP HOTEL SUITES OF THE YEAR

As yesterday's exceptional amenity becomes today's standard feature, hotels constantly have to up the ante to distinguish themselves as luxury leaders. The wildly diverse properties on our seventh annual list of top hotel suites push the boundaries to an all-new level of opulence and style. You'll be covered if your must-haves include a South African safari servicing four-star meals with vintage champagne, a palatial terrace with iconic views in the center of Paris or a mansion-sized villa on a private sliver of Seychelles coastline—all with the design finesse and second-to-none service that you require. We hope your travels take you to many of these extraordinary suites: THE BEST IN THE WORLD.

FOUR SEASONS HOTEL NEW YORK TY WARNER PENTHOUSE

Square Footage | 4,300

Why We Love It | With a pricetag of more than $50 million, this suite holds bragging rights as the most expensive to build in the United States. Every element of the I.M. Pei and Peter Marino-designed space is breathtaking and a catalog of the world's most exceptional materials (walls done in mother of pearl, rock crystal sinks, Chinese onyx floors). Even seemingly ordinary amenities get the ultra treatment—the plasma TVs have been programmed to receive every channel in the world. Should you want to explore the world outside, your choice of a chauffeured Rolls-Royce or Maybach awaits.
